PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the engineering profession is of great importance to the technological progress of our State; and,

WHEREAS, American engineers are constructively participating in solving our Nation's environmental problems in order to protect our land, air, water and natural resources; and,

WHEREAS, engineers exert a major influence in providing the answers to our future growth and progress, not only in South Dakota but the entire Nation; and,

WHEREAS, there has been a National theme established: "Engineering ----- Environmental Design for the 1970's":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of February 22-28, 1970, as in the State of South Dakota and urge all citizens to take note of the imaginative thinking of members of the engineering societies in our State and of the great service they are performing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, this 16th day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy
